

ROUSING OLNEY MEETING AT EDEN

Prominent Women Speak in Favor of Graham County's Candidate

OLNEY'S SPLENDID RECORD

Assures the People an Administration of Efficiency and Economy

The Amusement Hall at Eden was filled with ardent supporters of Mr. Olney last Sunday evening at a meeting of the Graham County Olney Club.

As usual, a large number of women were present. The sincerity of the women in their determination to cast their ballots intelligently was shown by the different women speakers.

As point after point was brought out, the enthusiasm increased, and, when it was reported that canvasses of the voters revealed the fact that 90 per cent of the democrats would support Mr. Olney, the audience realized that there must be very good reasons why such a majority of the people prefer Mr. Olney.

For twenty-five years the citizens of the valley have known Mr. Olney and in all that time there is none who could say that they had found him dishonest in any transaction. On the other hand, they had found that he had given the same painstaking attention to county affairs that he gave to his own business.

The men who are supporting Mr. Olney will receive no salaries or rewards of any kind for their labors. The campaign is being waged upon the basis of "No Boodle." They support Mr. Olney because they believe him to be the best qualified to administer the laws of the State. They are supporting him because of his past record of fair play and justice to all the people. They are supporting him because they know he will not override the laws to serve his own purposes.

John F. Weber, as the first speaker, brought out the record of Mr. Olney's long and successful fight to make the mining companies and railroads pay their just share of taxes. This refutes and disproves the statements now being peddled around that Mr. Olney is a corporation man. There is not a man in the State of Arizona today who has fought the corporations as hard as Mr. Olney. After their long fight, they found that his sense of fairness and justice was the same in public affairs as it was in his private affairs. This spirit of true Americanism enables him to represent all the people of the State.

He is a successful business man; a successful cattleman, and a successful farmer. He knows from experience the true relation between capital and labor. His worst enemies do not claim that it will be necessary for the legislature to abridge any of his powers to prevent him from placing himself above the laws of the State. It is a serious thing for the democratic party of the State to have a governor representing but one class of people, so that a recall petition became necessary.

Andrew Peterson has long been interested in legislative affairs. The freak measures have produced a condition of affairs that is not conducive to a stable and conservative government. Above all things Arizona needs a government which will invite capital into the State with the assurance of fair play. We have had a government which expels capital rather than one which welcomes the development of our resources. That is why a change in the executive department is imperative.

The citizens of Arizona realize the real danger in having a governor who has not paid a cent of taxes for years. They know that the more taxes a man pays, the more business-like he is in spending the tax receipts. They know that if he is not a taxpayer at all, he is less liable to be very thoughtful of other people's money.

Mrs. Richard Layton was given a rousing approval when she stated that the men and women could do no better than to vote for Mr. Olney. The women will acquire merit as well as honor and credit by having a man from Graham county as governor. Mr.

THE LLANO COLONY

Located in California, Has Attractive Features for the Ideal Life

Llano Del Rio Cooperative Colony, located 70 miles north and 20 miles east of Los Angeles, is a corporation operating under the state laws of the state of Nevada. Shares are sold at $2,000 each, and may be purchased outright or on the installment plan, at the option of the purchaser. Installments may be as low as $10.00 per month. When the sum of $1,000 has been paid in cash, the purchaser may move into the colony and pay the balance of $1,000 at the rate of one dollar a day out of the four dollars per day received as wages. Employment is continuous and permanent at the same rate for all kinds of labor and no discrimination as to sex, so long as adequate service is rendered.

The chief industries are: Agriculture and horticulture, which are conducted by irrigation from water supplied by Big Rock Creek, the water rights of which have been secured. There are also other industries in operation in shops and suitable buildings, such as a creamery, bakery, shoe factory, laundry, printery, blacksmith shop, carpenter shop, cabinet shop and machine shop, automobile garage, weaving shop, and barber shop.

A large dairy and silo supplied with alfalfa, corn and other products of the extensive colony farm. Three hundred Belgian hares and New Zealand rabbits supply fresh meat for the table and hides for the tannery, where they are made into gloves.

A very large poultry farm, stocked with Hogenized White Leghorns, supplies the eggs.

A large hog farm is stocked with standard breeds, such as Red Jerseys and some Berkshires. A large herd of cattle ranges on the Forest Reserve, in the vicinity of Jackson's Lake, all around which is located a very large quantity of fine timber and where the colony has a large concession and a first-class saw mill in operation.

The location for the fish hatchery is an ideal one, near the headwaters of Big Rock Creek, where clear, cool water bubbles up out of the ground in large quantities and flows on down the canyon seven or eight miles to the colony, receiving additions by means of springs and other canyon streams on the way.

Pure water for domestic purposes has been obtained by driving a tunnel into the mountain three-fourths of a mile. This tunnel is six feet high and five feet wide, while the supply of absolutely pure water is unlimited as soon as a cement waterway can be constructed from the tunnel to the colony.

The population of 800 people, men, women and children, is being added to by natural increase and many new stock purchasers right along.

In the foregoing only some of the advantages of this cooperative effort are shown. Following are some of the things absent from the colony: There is no constable, justice of the peace or jailer, and no jail, as they have no use for one. No pool halls, gambling houses or bawdy houses exist in the community, and likewise no churches. Quite a few residents, however, are affiliated with religious bodies on the outside. The writer met Methodists, Baptists, Catholics and Mormons.

A Union Sunday School is held in the High School building. Recreation of a suitable character is provided free for young and old. For further particulars apply to Wm. Moore Claydon, Box 191, Safford, Arizona.

ARIZONA STATE FAIR

Secretary Shaughnessy Visits Valley in Interest of Local Horses

Thomas D. Shaughnessy, secretary of the Arizona State Fair Commission, arrived here from Globe Tuesday morning to confer with Victor Holding, president of the Graham County Fair Commission, and LeRoy C. Snow, who is secretary of the commission, about matters relating to the coming State fair, and particularly about the entries in the big stake events of local horses, owned by Mr. Holding, Henry Gray and others.

Mr. Shaughnessy has been very successful as secretary of the State Fair Association and is an enthusiastic booster for Graham county's annual fair, from which he expects many fine exhibits of the valley's products for the State fair.

Mr. Shaughnessy has been making a tour of the State in the interest of the State fair and is particularly enthusiastic over the way the Arizona horsemen are responding. He stated that already entries had been received from a number of local horsemen and that others have declared their intention of entering soon. Some of the horses entered are: Irene Strathmore, Miss Axworthy Dillon, Maydella, and the colts: Mona Hall, Pineknott and Belle-bola, owned by T. E. Pollock, of Flagstaff; Lillian Van, Mabel Van and Gay Tommy, owned by J. R. Lambert, of Phoenix, and Zombino and Kildare, owned by Dr. J. G. Belt, of Phoenix.

Mr. Lambert's string are racing at the present time through the middle west and according to the reports of Horse Journals, are rounding into excellent shape. Dr. Belt's pacer, Zombino, and his trotter, Kildare, have been winning numerous races the past six weeks throughout southwestern Canada.

In connection with the Arizona horse program, attention is called to the fact that this year's entries for the colt races will close September 1st, a month earlier than the other events. The reason for this is, that in the event the colt races fail to fill, other races will be substituted and advertised immediately.

Four races are offered this year for Arizona colts, as follows: Two-year-old trot; two-year-old pace; three-year-old trot; three-year-old pace; with a purse of $500.00 for each.

It has been the policy of the State Fair Commission in the past to encourage the horsemen in the State, and six races are set apart this year for Arizona horses only.

In Globe the Birdno party was joined, by Tom Shaughnessy, secretary of the Arizona State Fair Commission.

Must Register for State Election

THE GUARDIAN'S attention has been called to the fact that there are a number of people in town who registered for the town primary and town elections, who have not registered for the State primary and general elections, under the belief that they do not have to register again.

This is a serious mistake, as all electors must register for the State elections, such registration holding good for any State elections which may be held during the next two years.

All electors who have not registered for the State primary and general elections, should do so at once and not lose their chance for voting.

The registration for the primary election will close Tuesday, August 22d.

SUPERVISORS MEET

McNeil Co., Phoenix, Lowest Bidder for New Court Room Furniture

The Board of Supervisors convened Monday in regular monthly meeting at the court house. Present: Chairman George A. Foote, and Geo. A. Matthews and James Quinn, members.

The minutes of the previous meetings were read by Clerk Layton and approved by the board.

Mrs. Ida Kreuger, whose husband is a private in Company B, now on duty at Naco, was granted an indigent allowance of $10.00 per month.

A petition from citizens at Lompoc, asking the board to build a new road through Stockton Pass to Lompoc, was read, and after considering the matter, the board decided that it was impossible at this time to build this much needed road on account of insufficient funds for this purpose.

A committee from the Graham County Fair Commission, headed by W. W. Pace, appeared before the board on a proposition for the county to purchase the fair grounds.

Mr. Pace stated that the stockholders of the Gila Valley Fair Association had made a very reasonable price on the property, with a practical loss of over $2,000 on their investment and had also given terms of long time purchase. Mr. Pace also stated that if the county fair was to be held annually, the fair grounds should be owned by the people.

The board took the matter under advisement and deferred action until the September meeting. A committee from the Graham County Fair Commission appeared before the board and asked for an appropriation of $2,000. After considering the matter fully, the board allowed $500.

Representatives from C. F. Weber and Co., of Los Angeles, Cal., and the McNeil Co., of Phoenix, were present at the opening of the bids for supplying furniture for the Superior Court room in the new county court house. The McNeil Co. being the lowest bidder, was awarded the contract, at $682.50.

Mrs. Arthur Woolsey appeared before the board in behalf of Mrs. Eddie Campbell, of Artesia, and asked for an indigent allowance. The board granted Mrs. Campbell an allowance of $10.00 per month.

The matter of a new road from Tenth street to the county road on the west line of the county poor farm, was taken up by the board and considered. The board entered an order to open a road from the southeast corner of the poor farm, running west to west line of poor farm; thence north along said west line to the county road. Dr. W. E. Platt, who owns the land adjoining the poor farm on the west, also gave one-half rod off his land for this new road.

TROUBLE IN CAMP

Professional Organizer Creates Discord in Hunt Labor Unions' Club

The most optimistic and encouraging reports are being received from all portions of the State of the growing popularity of George A. Olney, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Arizona.

While this encouraging condition exists as to Mr. Olney, there are evidences of dissatisfaction in the camps of the enemy. When the board of governors of the Hunt Labor Unions' Club, of Phoenix, met as an auditing committee recently, a mighty dissension arose as to who is to pay the bills incurred under the name of the club. A professional organizer of clubs had been engaged to obtain names to swell the list of membership and he succeeded most admirably, getting, it is claimed, 2,000 names.

If proper inducements are offered it does not seem to be any trouble for him to get names to place on the list of a club, no matter what its purpose, and he was charged with enrolling everybody he met with.

From a statement of the amount of money paid for obtaining these signatures the market price seems to have been twenty cents per, the total amount aggregating $400, an amount which the union men objected to paying.

Primarily a labor union organization, many not connected with the unions, it was charged, were enrolled on the membership list and hence the objection of the club becoming responsible for the expense. The failure of the professional organizer to hold a card in any union was another cause for complaint.

With the machinery of this club not running smoothly, another Hunt club has been organized which gives promise for greater harmony. It is called the "Economic League" and its membership consists of Leroy Ladd, secretary to Gov. Hunt, and C. M. Zander, member of the Tax Commission and professional political machine builder. In order to make it "non-partisan" they took a republican member in as secretary and have engaged space in a local publication to disseminate their political information through.

Even with the organization of three clubs, in an endeavor to secure the united support of organized labor, they have failed to accomplish this object both in Phoenix and Tucson, where some of the most enthusiastic workers for the nomination of George A. Olney are found in the ranks of the unions. They are not only contributing of their time, but entirely unsolicited, are contributing to the campaign in other ways, and those who are presuming on the present governor receiving the solid vote of organized labor are counting without their host.

With the complete refutation of the charge that Mr. Olney had advocated the passing of the mine tax bill, and with the exposure of the official record of Governor Hunt urging upon the first State legislature the passage of a bill, identical in its provisions, for basing the valuation of mines for taxable purposes, they are now casting about for some new issue to go before the people with, coupled with an appeal for votes to continue the incumbent in office for another term.

PRESIDENT MAY SETTLE STRIKE

Chief Executive's Influence May Be Needed If U. S. Mediation Fails

ARBITRATION IS REJECTED

Operators Hold Conference with the Board of Mediation in New York City

A New York dispatch states that if the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation, which was called in Wednesday, fails to adjust the differences between the railroads of the country and their 400,000 employees, President Wilson will be asked to use his personal influence to avert a general strike. This statement was made Wednesday by a representative of the railroad managers, who have been negotiating with the men since June 1st for a peaceful settlement.

The appeal to the president would be the last resort and would be taken only to save the nation from the trade paralysis that would follow a strike of the magnitude planned by the railroad men.

Late Wednesday night efforts of the federal mediators to bring the contending factions together were well under way. Six hours after the railroad managers had served notice on the men that they would withdraw their formal rejection of the workers demands and had proposed federal mediation, the mediators and the managers were closeted in secret session. Mediation was suggested in lieu of arbitration under the Newlands act or by the Interstate Commerce Commission proposals, which had been rejected by the brotherhoods.

Autos Clash, Nobody Hurt

Tuesday afternoon, about 6:00 o'clock, while Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orr and Mrs. Place, of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, of Solomonsville, were on their way to the former county seat in the Orr auto, Mrs. Orr driving, they collided with an auto driven by Chris Merrill, on Tenth street, near N street.

Mrs. Orr was thrown against the brake and fainted. She was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. O'Bryan, where she was attended by Drs. Martin and McWhirt. Mrs. Orr soon recovered and beyond the shock and fright occasioned by the collision, she was unhurt. Neither machine was damaged.

This will be a big improvement to this end of town and one long needed.

Nearly means enough to cover the loss of the house has been raised by subscription. An itemized statement of this deal will appear in THE GUARDIAN in a short time.
